Practice Sheet – Chapter 7: What to Do When You Get Stuck

🎯 Speak Out Loud

1. That’s a good question… I’m thinking.
2. My English just went on vacation for a second!
3. Give me a moment — the word will come to me.
4. How do you say that again?
5. I totally forgot the word — can you help me out?
6. Oh, I lost my train of thought.
7. Sorry, what’s the word for that in English?
8. I was just about to say something — it slipped away!
9. Anyway, what was I saying?
10. Right! That’s what I meant.
11. Oh, that’s not the right word — let me try again.
12. I don’t know how to say it exactly, but it’s like…
13. You know what I mean, right?

14. Let me rephrase that.
15. I’m still learning how to explain this in English.
16. It’s on the tip of my tongue!
17. Give me a second, I’ll remember it.
18. Sorry, my brain froze for a moment.
19. That’s not the word I wanted.
20. I can’t remember the name — but you know that movie with…?
21. What’s the word for when something feels…?
22. I always mix up those two words.
23. Let’s say it like this instead.
24. I can show you what I mean.
25. Wait, I’ll find the word — it’s similar to “...”
26. Sometimes I just go blank — it happens!
27. I’ll explain it another way.
28. Sorry, my mind went blank for a sec.
29. Let’s move on and I’ll come back to it.
30. There we go! That’s the word I wanted!

🌟 Fun & Creative Exercises

1. Blank Recovery Drill: Choose any topic, start speaking for one minute, and intentionally pause mid-sentence. Practice filling the silence naturally with recovery phrases.
2. Rephrase Game: Pick a word you don't remember in English and describe it using other words until you "find" it.
3. Laugh It Off: Practice saying one of your "stuck" phrases with humor — it turns stress into connection.
