

Strong R and Soft R

The same letter, two different jobs.

THE SOUND OF ENGLISH

R Strong R at the start of a word

red

right

run

read

ready

room

rain

remember

restaurant

reply

r Soft R after a vowel

car

park

four

more

door

morning

start

near

year

hard

STRONG R

- 1 Remember to read the report before the meeting.
- 2 The rain ruined our weekend plans.
- 3 She is ready to run the whole project.
- 4 We booked a room and a table at the restaurant.
- 5 Reply to me when you get home.

SOFT R

- 1 The car is parked near the door.
- 2 I start at four in the afternoon.
- 3 We had a hard year, but things are fine now.
- 4 There is more food in the car.
- 5 We walked in the park until it got dark.

BOTH TOGETHER

- 1 Remember to lock the car door.
- 2 She runs four kilometers every morning.
- 3 The restaurant near our office is really good.
- 4 I read the whole report in the car.
- 5 We are ready to start.

Say every word and every sentence out loud.

Free & Clear English