

TR and DR

TR sounds like ch. DR sounds like j. Every time.

THE SOUND OF ENGLISH

tr TR sounds like chr

train

chrain

try

chry

travel

chravel

true

chrue

trust

chrust

tree

chree

trip

chrip

truck

chruck

track

chrack

trouble

chrouble

dr DR sounds like jr

drive

jrive

drink

jrink

dress

jress

dream

jream

drop

jrop

draw

jraw

dry

jry

drum

jrum

drawer

jrawer

drove

jrove

TR

- 1 We took the train to the airport.
- 2 I trust him with the kids.
- 3 They travel for work almost every month.
- 4 The truck blocked the whole street.
- 5 Our trip to Greece was short but perfect.

DR

- 1 Can you drive me to the station?
- 2 She wore a blue dress to the party.
- 3 I need a cold drink and ten minutes.
- 4 He drove home in the rain.
- 5 The kids draw on the walls again.

BOTH TOGETHER

- 1 The kids drank all the juice on the train.
- 2 I dropped my travel bag at the hotel.
- 3 He tried to draw the tree from memory.
- 4 She drives a small truck for work.
- 5 We had a drink after the trip.